

NEW EVALUATION DIRECTOR + SERVICES

Specialty neurodiversity evaluation services - from accelerated to comprehensive

Streamlining and Addressing What Families Need

- Dr. Armstrong brings her compassionate expertise, prestigious training, and new services to address what families are needing for their children
- New - accelerated autism-focused assessments, for insurance documentation of non-complex cases
- New - virtual/telehealth evaluations for families in rural Texas (18 months to 4 years)
- New - insurance documentation
- Timely reports and documentation provided to families/clients
- Complimentary phone call with Dr. Armstrong to determine the right evaluation for your child

Evaluation Services

- Ages 18 months - late adulthood
- Psychological and Academic Testing
- Most common profiles assessed: AD/HD, learning differences (e.g. dyslexia), IQ of all ranges, anxiety, autism, OCD, DMDD, and mood disorders
- Documentation for school, college, workforce, treatment, accommodations, modifications, disability social services, and insurance access

Emily Armstrong, PhD

New Director of Evaluation Services

Licensed Psychologist
Autism & Developmental Specialist

Vanderbilt Autism Center trained

Highlights

- Short waitlist
- Timely reports
- Team of licensed psychologists specializing in neurodiversity
- We are a TWC-VR vendor
- Self-pay practice (See our online insurance guide)

(972) 985-1100

www.spectratherapies.com office@spectratherapies.com

SPECTRA
THERAPIES + EVALUATIONS

ILLUMINATION
PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING